Speaker 1

Most of my friends spend their free time online or playing computer games but I prefer to be outdoors with my camera. I love taking pictures of trees and animals. I know it sounds crazy but I enjoy being on my own so it's the perfect hobby for me and I hope it'll be my job one day!

Speaker 2

The most difficult thing about learning English? Well, that's easy to answer. It's not the grammar or vocabulary. No, it's the spelling. We have tests every week but I still make a lot of mistakes. I think it's because there aren't any rules when it comes to pronunciation, so you just have to learn it.

My sister fell off her bicycle last week and she had to go to hospital as they thought her leg was broken. Luckily, it wasn't but she can't really walk at the moment. She's always busy and doing things so she doesn't like being at home on the sofa all day, but at least she can study.

It's just not fair! Every weekend I have to help Mum with housework while my sister goes out with her friends. I usually do the dishes after supper too. And what does Mia do? Teenagers and food around the world

Kyoko, 15, Japan

I love fast food like burgers and pizza and most of my friends are the same. When we meet up at the weekends, we often go to the shopping mall and have a burger and fries. My parents are more traditional though and we still like to have fish, rice and vegetables when we're at home.

Brad, 16, USA

I do a lot of sport so I'm always hungry. I know it's important to eat healthily when you're exercising so I try to have lots of fresh stuff and pasta for energy but I like fast food too. What teenager doesn't?! I know a lot of people think we eat too much here in the States but I don't think that's true.

Joanna, 14, England

I come from a big family and it's a tradition in our house that we all get together for Sunday lunch. My mum's a brilliant cook and she usually does a roast: chicken, beef or lamb. I'm a vegetarian though so she has to do something different for me, but I love all the delicious roast potatoes and fresh vegetables!

Giulia, 16, Italy

I love cooking, especially pasta dishes. Pasta is always much better at home than in a restaurant. And it's so easy and quick. My favourite is spaghetti with olive oil and lots of pepper. It sounds boring but it's delicious.

Kai, 15, Germany

I grew up in Spain because my dad worked there for a few years and that's where he met my mum, so we don't eat typical German food at home. We have more fish than meat and more rice than potatoes.
